

Fred H. Lietz
Vice President and Chief Procurement Officer

Fred H. Lietz, 52, is vice president and chief procurement officer of Federal Signal Corporation. Lietz is leading the implementation of world-class supply chain practices across the Federal Signal enterprise.

Prior to joining Federal Signal in 2007, Lietz served as vice president of global procurement and logistics at Westchester, Ill.-based Andrew Corporation. Prior to this, he served in a number of procurement leadership positions of increasing responsibility at Whirlpool Corporation and Philips, culminating as global director of non-production procurement and strategy planning for Whirlpool.

Lietz holds a Business Administration degree from Industrie-und Handelskammer in Stuttgart, Germany.

About Federal Signal Corporation

Federal Signal Corporation (NYSE: FSS) is a leader in advancing security and well-being for communities and workplaces around the world. The company designs and manufactures a suite of products and integrated solutions for municipal, governmental, industrial and airport customers. Federal Signal's portfolio of trusted, high-priority products include Bronto aerial devices, Elgin and Ravo street sweepers, E-ONE fire apparatus, Federal Signal safety and security systems, Guzzler industrial vacuums, Jetstream waterblasters and Vactor sewer cleaners. In addition, the company operates consumable industrial tooling businesses. Federal Signal was founded in 1901 and is based in Oak Brook, Illinois. www.federsignal.com