

Jennifer L. Sherman
Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

Jennifer L. Sherman, 42, is vice president, general counsel, corporate compliance officer and secretary at Federal Signal Corporation. Sherman is responsible for Federal Signal's legal organization, including corporate governance, employment, intellectual property, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, patent law and securities compliance. She is also responsible for government affairs activities.

Previously, Sherman served as deputy general counsel. She joined Federal Signal Corporation as corporate counsel in 1994. She was part of the trial team that successfully defeated the Philadelphia hearing loss cases.

Prior to this, Sherman served as a corporate attorney for Hook-SuperX and Revco Drug Stores, a $2 billion healthcare and prescription drug company. While corporate counsel, Sherman participated in negotiating key corporate financial transactions and represented Hook-SuperX through its acquisition by Revco Drug Stores in 1994.

Sherman began her legal career in 1989 at Barack, Ferrazzano, Kirschbaum & Perlman. At the firm, she specialized in commercial contract disputes, labor law, bankruptcy, securities.

Sherman holds a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration and a law degree cum laude from the University of Michigan Law School.

Sherman is a member in good standing with the American Bar Association and serves as a director of and volunteer for the Center for Disability and Elder Law (CDEL), a Chicago-based non-profit organization dedicated to helping disadvantaged citizens obtain legal assistance.

About Federal Signal Corporation

Federal Signal Corporation (NYSE: FSS) is a leader in advancing security and well-being for communities and workplaces around the world. The company designs and manufactures a suite of products and integrated solutions for municipal, governmental, industrial and airport customers. Federal Signal's portfolio of trusted, high-priority products include Bronto aerial devices, Elgin and Ravo street sweepers, E-ONE fire apparatus, Federal Signal safety and security systems, Guzzler industrial vacuums, Jetstream waterblasters and Vactor sewer cleaners. In addition, the company operates consumable industrial tooling businesses. Federal Signal was founded in 1901 and is based in Oak Brook, Illinois. www.federalsignal.com